

LEGO Chess Pirates FMV Sequences

Level 1 :-

Setting

A small garrison port at the end of a Caribbean style mainland. The Santa Cruz bobs up and down in the harbour. Soldiers (Rook) and Conquistadors (Queen) mill about. Behind the garrison can be seen lush jungle.

Intro FMV

The Admiral (Bishop) sits on the edge of the jetty, fishing. There's a tug on the line, and the pirate eagerly reels it in to find a sealed bottle containing a piece of paper. Opening the bottle and examining the paper, the Admiral sees a map of the islands with a large cross on one of them – the pirate thinks: treasure!!!

However, all this time the hapless pirate has been observed by a pirate (King), who is accompanied by his pet crocodile (who have a Dastardly & Muttley-stylee relationship). The two turn to look at each other and smile knowingly.

That night, the Admiral lies in bed asleep, clutching the precious map. At the window, the pirate appear, who sends the crocodile into the room. The croc grabs the map and starts to slither back out of the window. Just in time, the Admiral wakes up. Grabbing the croc's tale, a tug of war ensues between the pirate and the admiral, with the distraught looking croc caught in the middle. The game begins...

Lose/Stalemate FMV

The pirate wins the tug of war. The Admiral loses his grip on the tale and falls back. We see the pirate and his croc running off into the night...

Win FMV

The admiral wins the tug of war. The croc flies back, the map flying out of his mouth and into the admiral's hand. The croc runs off. We see the pirate and the croc running off into the night, the admiral laughing at them from the window.

Level 2 :-

Setting

The deck of the Santa Cruz.

Intro:

The admiral sets sail for treasure island along with some conquistador sailors (Queen). The ship leaves harbour to the cheers of a crowd on the jetty.

We cut to the Santa Cruz sailing through the sea. The admiral surveys the horizon and – yikes! – sees a pirate ship (The Marauder) approaching. Zooming in he sees the pirate who tried to steal his map accompanied by his pet croc and his pirate chums (Knight & Pawns).

A sea chase ensues. Eventually the pirates draw up alongside the Santa Cruz and start to board her. The game begins...

Lose/Stalemate FMV

The camera pans down to see the admiral walking the plank, with a crowd of pirates jeering and laughing behind him and the chief pirate triumphantly waving the map. As the pirate ship sails off, we see the dejected looking admiral being fished out of the drink by his friends on the Santa Cruz.

Win FMV

The camera pans down to see the chief pirate walking the plank, with a crowd of cheering sailors behind him and the admiral waving the map. As the Santa Cruz sails off we see the pirate giving chase, sitting on the back of his croc.

Level 3 :-

Setting

A beach of a tropical island with the Santa Cruz moored nearby.

Intro FMV

The Santa Cruz arrives at treasure island. Disembarking the admiral uses his map and explores the beach, to find a big red cross on the ground just like on the map. He starts digging and digging and digging until he's at the bottom of a deep hole. Suddenly the admiral's spade hits something!

Clearing away the dirt reveals a chest. We see the admiral open the chest and his beaming face illuminated by a golden glow, but don't actually see what's in the chest. Suddenly a shadow falls over the admiral. He slams the chest lid shut and looks up to see the pirate and the croc standing at the top of the hole looking down on him. The pirate laughs and drops down. We cut to outside the hole as the sounds of a fight come from within, and the game begins...

Lose/Stalemate FMV

We see the pirate pull the chest out of the hole and wander off laughing, the croc by his side bearing the chest on its back. We pan across to see the fuming admiral buried up to his neck in the sand.

Win FMV

We see the admiral pull the chest out of the hole and wander off back to his ship, carrying the chest. We pan across to see the fuming pirate buried up to his neck in the sand, the croc sniggering to itself much to the annoyance of the baddy.

We cut to the Santa Cruz returning to the garrison port. As the admiral lugs the chest onto shore, he's surrounded by a crowd of excited people. Proudly the admiral opens the chest to reveal loads and loads of lovely yellow LEGO bricks! The crowd give a loud hoorah and an impromptu party breaks out.
